

FAQs for law students

Oral Module Examination European Law

1. Which learning aids should/can I use to prepare for the module exam European Law with Prof. Lengauer?

The information about this can be found on the webpage of Prof. Lengauer.

2. Is it possible to limit the material - e.g. by topics or by pages - beyond the information given?

No, this is not possible. Students are kindly asked to refrain from such requests.

3. Where can I make requests?

Students are requested to send all inquiries to the mail address

beratung.wahlfachkorb.europarecht@univie.ac.at and not to use personal mail addresses.

This will make it much easier to process requests. Thank you for respecting our work 😊!

4. What happens to my message if I nevertheless addressed it to Prof. Lengauer personally?

In such a case the message will be forwarded to the address given above and processed there.

4a. How should I formulate my request?

Please write your request in the "Subject" and use your university account. Please write politely and considerately 😊.

5. How long will it take for my request to be answered?

Requests are usually responded to within 6-8 business days at the latest.

6. How do I find out the exam dates of Prof. Lengauer?

The exam date can be found (for non-candidates) one week before on the webpage "Exams (Prüfungen)" of Prof. Lengauer.

7. Can I find out the exam date in advance?

Please assume that information will be posted on the webpage as soon as it is available. Students are kindly asked to refrain from making inquiries in this regard.

8. Can I change my exam date from one day to another (within the same exam week)?

No, unfortunately this is not possible. Students are kindly requested to refrain from making such requests.

8a. Can I postpone my exam date to another time within the same day, for example because I want to attend other appointments?

No, this is not possible. Students are kindly requested to refrain from making such requests as well.

9. Can Prof. Lengauer assign me an exam date within the exam week, or exclude others? For example, if I have appointments on another day?

No, this is not possible. Prof. Lengauer does **not** assign individual exam dates and has no authorization to do so.

10. How do I know whether Prof. Lengauer will be testing on site or online?

As soon as the relevant information is available, the exam mode will be announced on Prof. Lengauer's webpage.

11. Which program will be used for online exams?

If online testing is used, the program Zoom will be used.

12. How and in which way can I listen to exams?

Students are asked to register for an exam date by sending an email to beratung.wahlfachkorb.europarecht@univie.ac.at. Please note the date and time in the subject line.

To ensure the stability of electronic systems, the number of listeners must be limited to 30 people - please understand!

13. In which language will the exam be held?

For law candidates in German, for those I-REWI in English.

14. Is it possible to get a different language arrangement?

No, it is not possible. Students are kindly requested to refrain from making such requests.

15. Is it possible to look up a law edition orally with Prof. Lengauer at MP EuR?

Yes, in fact, this is requested! Please use a law edition of your choice, which only contains references.

16. How does an exam with Prof. Lengauer proceed?

As a rule, candidates are examined individually; if there should be deviations from this procedure, e.g. due to a high number of candidates, this would be announced in time, i.e. at least 1 week before the MP.

17. Is it possible to have a drink during the exam?

This is not a problem! Students are welcome to have a drink, a medicine, or otherwise eat something "very small" if they wish.

18. Is it possible for Prof. Lengauer to enter my grade in advance or quickly?

No, this is not possible because Prof. Lengauer is **not* allowed to enter grades.*
Prof. Lengauer does not have authorization to do so.

Students are therefore kindly requested to refrain from making such requests.

19. Can I ask Prof. Lengauer general questions about how to proceed?

Prof. Lengauer is happy to answer technical questions ☺. However, study advising is not part of the professional and administrative area Prof. Lengauer is in charge of. Students are therefore kindly asked to refrain from making inquiries in this regard.

GOOD LUCK WITH YOUR EXAMS!
