

AUSTRIAN REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL AND EUROPEAN LAW – ARIEL

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Austrian Review of International and European Law (ARIEL) is an annual peer-reviewed publication that provides a scholarly forum to discuss issues of public international law and European law, with particular emphasis on topics being of special interest to Austria. It focuses on theoretical as well as practical questions and current developments in all areas of public international and European law. Apart from a digest of Austrian Practice in international law, encompassing pertinent judicial decisions, executive as well as parliamentary documents, each volume contains both longer analytical articles, as well as shorter notes dealing with current developments.

The editors invite all interested persons to submit contributions for volume 26 (2021) of the ARIEL. This issue will be dedicated to the changing structures of international investment and trade law. Potential topics might include the reform of investor-state dispute settlement mechanisms, the modernization of investment and trade agreements, WTO reforms and adaptations, the question of SDG-alignment or – more generally – the emergence of new values and norms and their role in investment or trade law, or new trends in case law.

Submissions will be examined on their academic relevance and undergo an independent double-blind peer-review process, conducted by scholars and practitioners of public international and European law.

Submissions for analytical articles should be 8,000-12,500 words in length, including footnotes. Submission for notes on current developments should be 6,000-8,000 words in length, including footnotes. All contributions should conform to the Oxford University Standard for Citation of Legal Authorities (OSCOLA), as well as the guidelines set out in the general information for authors of the ARIEL. Submissions should include a confirmation of exclusive submission and be sent to the managing editor (philipp.janig@univie.ac.at) by 1 March 2022.

More information on the ARIEL, including the general information for authors, can be found on our website: <http://deicl.univie.ac.at/en/ariel-international-law/>; the OSCOLA citation rules are available at: <https://www.law.ox.ac.uk/research-subject-groups/publications/oscola>.
