

Curriculum Vitae

Dorit Aschauer is currently a Project staff member at the Department of European, International and Comparative Law at the University of Vienna. She is studying law at the University of Vienna. During the winter term 2019/2020, she studied at Monash University in Melbourne. In 2020/2021 she was part of the Moot Court Team of the University of Vienna for the European Rounds of the Manfred Lachs Space Law Moot Court.

Prior to her current position, she worked as a paralegal in an Austrian and Australian law firm.