

Florian Dunkel

External Lecturer
University of Vienna
Section for Public International Law and International Relations
florian.dunkel@univie.ac.at

Education: Mag. iur. (Master in Law), Mag. phil. (Master in Political Science), University of Vienna and Catholic University of Lisbon, PhD project in International Human Rights Protection (contribution of international election observation to the implementation of political rights), Certified Mediator, Propaedeutic Training in Psychotherapy (Postgraduate Center, University of Vienna)

Current activities: Lecturer at private training institutes, Election Observer for the European Union in Africa, Asia and Latin America, Probation Officer, Legal Guardian

Work history (selection): Teaching and Research Fellow, Section of International Law and International Relations at the University of Vienna (2011-2012), Legal Department of the General Settlement Fund for Victims of National Socialism (2005-2007)

Languages: German, English, French, Greek, Portuguese, Spanish, Arabic (basic)