

Curriculum Vitae

Katharina Harreiter is currently a Project staff member to ao. Univ.-Prof. Mag. Dr. Irmgard Marboe at the Department of European, International and Comparative Law at the University of Vienna. She is studying law at the University of Vienna.

She was part of the University of Vienna's team for the Manfred Lachs Space Law Moot Court 2020 which won the European Regional Rounds and made runner-up in the World Finals. Furthermore, the team received the Eilene Galloway award for Best Memorials. During the course of her studies she completed the elective module "Criminal Justice and Criminal Sciences".

Her interest in the Erasmus+ program is closely tied to her own experiences during an exchange semester at the Université catholique de Louvain in Belgium.