

Curriculum vitae

Dipl.-Jurist Paulina Rundel is a university assistant (prae doc) at the Department of International Law and International Relations at the University of Vienna.

She studied law at the Humboldt University in Berlin and at King's College London. In order to deepen her knowledge of international law, she attended summer schools at the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II in Naples and the Izmir Ekonomi Üniversitesi. She is also a participant in the LL.M. programme "International Law" at the University of Vienna.

After completing her first state examination in law in Berlin, she worked in the legal department of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) and the United Nations Office for Outer Space Affairs (UNOOSA) in Vienna. During her law studies, she worked at various law firms such as Linklaters LLP Berlin, Advant Beiten Berlin and Cliffe Dekker Hofmeyr Cape Town.

In 2023, she supervised the team of the University of Vienna at the Manfred Lachs Space Law Moot Court. Previously, she has participated in the ELSA Criminal Law Moot Court and several Model European Union Conferences (MEUC) in Berlin, as well as in the Model EU of the Eastwest European Institute (EWEI) in Brussels several times.

Her research interests include human rights, especially in connection with climate change and international law/European law, the law of international organizations and state responsibility.