

Celina Saci has been working as a university assistant (prae doc) in Professor Marboe's team at the Department of Public International Law and International Relations at the University of Vienna since January 2024. She completed an Erasmus stay at the University College Dublin and a legal internship at the Vienna Public Prosecutor's Office. Finishing her law degree at the University of Vienna, she was a student assistant at the Institute for Roman Law and Ancient Legal History.

After completing her studies, she worked as an administrative intern at the Federal Chancellery of Austria. Prior to this, she gained work experience as an intern in various law firms and at the London Foreign Trade Office of the Austrian Economic Chamber.