

Amit Kumar Sinha is a university assistant (prae doc) in the team of Professor Michael Waibel at the Department of International Law at the University of Vienna. He has completed his LL.M. with the highest honors at the George Washington University Law School, Washington DC (US). He has also completed an LL.M in International Legal Studies from the Faculty of Legal Studies, South Asian University, New Delhi (India) and a BA LLB (Hons) from Hidayatullah National Law University, Raipur, India. He has published articles in diverse areas of domestic and international importance in national and international journals. He was a recipient of the Young Scholars Award from the Asian Society of International Law and Cambridge University Press in 2019.

He is an Assistant Professor of Law (currently on leave) at the University of Delhi, a leading public university in Delhi, India. His areas of interest include International Economic Law, International Arbitration, Human Rights & Feminist Theories, and Energy Law.

He started the interdisciplinary doctoral program in International Law at the University of Vienna in October 2024.