

Univ.-Ass. Mag. Kilian Wagner, B.A.

University of Vienna
Department of European, International and Comparative Law
Section for International Law and International Relations

Schottenbastei 10-16
A-1010 Vienna

Kilian Wagner works as a Research and Teaching Assistant (prae doc) at the Section for International Law and International Relations at the University of Vienna.

He studied Law and Political Science at the University of Vienna and was awarded with the Heinrich-Klang-Price.

During his studies he worked as a Research Assistant at the Department of Constitutional and Administrative Law at the University of Vienna. He gained practical experience in International Law as a trainee at the Austrian Mission to NATO. Furthermore he completed the court clerkship in Vienna and internships in international law firms, including Freshfields LLP.